Daiva's message

It was a great pleasure at the last meeting to say hello to some members from Braidwood and Bungendore. Apart for the social visit, they came to promote the fabulous Braidwood event on the last weekend in November – The Airing of the Quilts. This coincides with the Bungendore quilt show. I would encourage members to try to get to these events, they are always well worth a visit. Lisa Walton will be conducting workshops at the Braidwood event. If you want more information, please see the SCCQ webpage.

We took time at the last meeting to remember June Fairall who was an active member of both Batemans Bay Quilters and Night Owls. She was also a prominent feature of SCCQ meetings as she ran the trading table. She will be missed by all who knew her. But thanks go to Margaret Herzog for agreeing to take over as Convenor of the trading table.

The AGM and elections were conducted in August and all positions were filled. Thanks to Nola Helmore for the excellent job she has done as Treasurer for the last three years and thanks to Marilyn Kellett for agreeing (with a bit of arm twisting) to take over the task at the last minute.

We look forward to another productive and creative year.

News from the Groups

Batemans Bay Patchworkers and Quilters

Attendances have been lower over this winter period with members travelling, doing "Granny" duties or not being well, however our membership is approximately 50. We have welcomed new members and said our farewells to others who have moved or died, June Fairall being our latest member mourned.

We have enjoyed:

- The travelling suitcase
- Completing and distributing charity quilts
- In house workshops
- Our challenge for the year "homes"
- We look forward to our trip to Canberra tomorrow for the quilt show
- And Julie Wood workshop o Superior threads during this month

If noise is any indication, we have a happy group.

Bungendore Quilters

Bungendore Quilters is a smallish group with 28 members at the end of June, from Bungendore and a wider area. We enjoy Sew and Chat days on the 2nd Tuesday and 2nd Saturday of every month, and alternate months on the 4th Wednesday evening. We are currently finishing of turning our last year's Challenge Quilt tops into finished quilts, which will then be given to aged care, and other charities. Now the planning starts in earnest for our exhibition at the end of November, held the same weekend as Braidwood's Quilt weekend. We feel the 2 exhibitions complement each other, and bring many visitors to our local area."

Night Owls

We held our AGM yesterday and Julie Criss is the new President of Night Owls: her quilting and organisational skills will be sure to result in many exciting new projects for Night Owl members.

As you know from the last Newsletter, June Fairall died last month. June was a much loved and very talented member of both Batemans Bay Patchwork and Quilters and Night Owls as well as an asset to SCCQ. She is sadly missed..

AGE ACTIVATED ATTENTION DEFICIT DISORDER – This is how it manifests:

This amusing article was sent by Robyn Sammons, SCCQ Secretary. You may have stumbled upon this article doing the rounds on the internet. There is now a video and a link to this can be found at the end of the article.

I decide to water my garden. As I turn on the hose in the driveway, I look over at my car and decide it needs washing. As I start toward the garage, I notice mail on the porch table that I brought up from the mail box earlier. I decide to go through the mail before I wash the car. I lay my car keys on the table, put the junk mail in the garbage can under the table, and notice that the can is full. So, I decide to put the bills back on the table and take out the garbage first. But then I think, since I'm going to be near the mailbox when I take out the garbage anyway, I may as well pay the bills first. My extra cheques are in my desk in the study, so I go inside the house to my desk where I find the can of Coke I'd been drinking. I'm going to look for my cheque book, but first I need to push the Coke aside so that I don't accidentally knock it over. The Coke is getting warm, and I decide to put it in the refrigerator to keep it cold. As I head toward the kitchen with the Coke, a vase of flowers on the counter catches my eye – they need water. I put the Coke on the counter and discover my reading glasses that I've been searching for all morning. I decide I better put them back on my desk, but first I'm going to water the flowers. I set the glasses back down on the counter, fill a container with water and suddenly spot the TV remote. Someone left it on the kitchen table. I realise that tonight when we go to watch TV, I'll be looking for the remote, but I won't remember that it's on the kitchen table, so I decide to put it back in the den where it belongs, but first I'll water the flowers. I pour some water in the flowers, but quite a bit of it spills on the floor. So, I set the remote back on the table, get some towels and wipe up the spill. Then, I head down the hall trying to remember what I was planning to do.

At the end of the day:

the car isn't washed

the bills aren't paid

there is a warm can of Coke sitting on the counter

the flowers don't have enough water

there is still only one cheque in my cheque book

I can't find my glasses and I don't remember what I did with the car keys.

Then, when I try to figure out why nothing got done today, I'm really baffled because I know I was busy all the damn day, and I'm really tired. I realise this is a serious problem, and I'll try to get some help for it, but first I'll check my e-mail.....

Don't laugh – if this isn't you yet, your day is coming
